Biography

William O'Brien is a founding member and Chairman Emeritus of the firm. Bill has been recognized as one of the country's leading trial lawyers, having tried numerous high-profile cases in state and federal courts. His accomplishments have been touted in such publications as Best Lawyers in America and Chambers USA, The Client's Guide to America's Leading Business Lawyers.

During more than 40 years of practice, Bill has represented clients in a wide variety of matters, including products liability and mass tort cases, class actions, defamation, employment discrimination, personal injury, professional liability, insurance coverage, environmental, antitrust, and commercial litigation. He has done extensive defense work for law firms in employment and legal malpractice matters, and has represented physicians and leading hospitals, including the world's foremost pediatric hospital, in complex medical malpractice cases. Bill has also been involved in governmental relations and legislative work with respect to products liability legislation and other matters of current concern in Pennsylvania.

Representative Matters

- In January 2008, as lead trial counsel, obtained defense verdict in jury trial on behalf of international law firm in legal malpractice action claiming over $20 million in damages.
- Other representations on behalf of law firms include the successful defense of a major law firm in a high-profile sexual harassment case tried to a Pennsylvania jury in federal court; a widely-publicized jury trial involving a law firm accused of discriminating against a lawyer who had AIDS (similar to the claim depicted in the movie, Philadelphia); the defense of other prominent law firms in professional liability and employment-related cases.
- Represented heir to chemical fortune in high-profile civil lawsuit for wrongful death brought by wife of Olympic athlete shot by heir.
- Represented major supplier of cell phone products in cases brought on behalf of individuals and putative class members in federal and state courts alleging injuries from use of cell phones.
- Other representations in the area of products liability include the defense of a major tobacco company in class actions and individual lawsuits in federal and state courts alleging harm caused by cigarette products; the defense of a major paint
